PRIZES

BMO Harris Bank will be providing a $2,500 Brightstart Scholarship to a student selected as the DuPage County Money Smart Kid. Itasca Bank & Trust Co. will be providing a $1,000 Brightstart Scholarship to the student selected as the runner-up. In addition, U.S. Bank will be providing $100 savings bonds for the four finalists.

GUIDELINES

DuPage County finalists will be selected through the Money Smart Kid Chicago entry process (please see attached application form). In other words, students who live in DuPage County will be entered into both the Chicago Money Smart Kid and DuPage County Money Smart Kid contests. Only one entry is needed to compete in both contests. Please complete and return the attached application as instructed.

Students may apply individually or through their class. Teachers are encouraged to use the Money Smart Kid contest as a classroom activity. Participation in the Money Smart Kid contest is an excellent applied writing practice for students. The first 20 Chicago area school teachers to submit at least two essays will receive one $25 gift card courtesy of BMO Harris Bank. Each participating student who attends the kick off event for DuPage County at the College of DuPage on April 21st will receive a bag of shredded money from the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago
