

Steven R. Murphy, CRCM, is a Regional Review Examiner for the Chicago Regional Office of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Prior to assuming his current position, he served as Examiner-In-Charge at over 100 examinations of banks ranging in size from $10 million to multibillion dollar banking organizations, as well as served in a variety of assignments at the regional and headquarter levels within the agency's Division of Supervision and Consumer Protection and Division of Finance. Steve is a veteran speaker on compliance topics at various industry conferences sponsored by organizations such as the Community Bankers Association, Illinois Bankers Association, and Chicagoland Compliance Association. As a teacher at the FDIC's examiner schools for greater than a decade, he co-developed and currently serves as a lead instructor for the agency's CRA School, which is held in the FDIC training facility in Arlington, Virginia. He is also a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking – University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin and the United States Department of Agriculture's Executive Leadership Program.