

Robert A. Straits

W. E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research

Director of the Kalamazoo County and St. Joseph County Michigan Works Service Delivery Area. Service Delivery Areas are responsible for all federal and state job training funds allocated for job seekers and employers. Responsibilities for the Upjohn Institute include grant and contract planning, program development, fiscal management, advisory committee staffing, sub-contracting, grants management, personnel, and the evaluation of federal and state job training programs.

Administrator of the Upjohn Institute serving as Assistant Secretary-Treasurer to the W.E. Upjohn Trust Corporation. Areas of responsibility for the Upjohn Institute include business and financial manager, personnel manager, and grants administrator.

Currently Mr. Straits represents Michigan on the Great Lakes Employment and Training Association, and serves on the Michigan Economic Development Advisory Council, and the Michigan Prisoner Re-entry Steering Committee.