

Dave Andrea is a principal with Plante Moran's strategy practice and leads the Customer-Supplier Working Relations Index practice serving the automotive industry with the premier purchasing organization benchmarking study. With more than 30 years of experience in the automotive industry, Andrea has worked in many positions within the industry, including senior vice president and chief economist at the Original Equipment Suppliers Association (OESA) as well as CFO, director of forecasting, and executive vice president of research with the Center for Automotive Research (CAR). He is the chairman of the finance committee at SAE International, treasurer of the SAE Detroit Section, and a member of the Detroit Economic Club, Automotive Press Association, and was past president of the Detroit Association for Business Economics.

Andrea earned his Bachelor of Science in business economics and corporate finance from Miami University and MBA from the University of Michigan.